

RPHOA Secondary Suite Access Application

As part of the Rockland Park master-planned community, Brookfield Residential incorporated the Rockland Park Homeowners Association (RPHOA), which will be responsible for the maintenance of certain amenities within the community. These amenities complement Rockland Park's overall development concept and clearly distinguish Rockland Park from other communities. Annual fees are mandatory to ensure sustainability and to cover operating and maintenance costs of the Association, including the Rockland Park amenities. Each property will be subject to an annual charge evidenced in the form of an Encumbrance registered on title, securing payment to the Association. This annual charge permits residents in one (1) suite of the home to access to the RPHOA park/facility. If additional suite(s) in the home would like access to the RPHOA park/facility, access for renters in the additional suite(s) may be purchased as an annual access pass for the full fiscal year of April 1 - March 31 at the current multi-family rate or a 10 Visit Access Pass valid until March 31st of the fiscal year when it was purchased for $300. This access must be purchased annually each fiscal year (April 1 - March 31).
